

Glenn Ghidoni, 74

Glenn Ghidoni of Plymouth died on Sept. 4 at Curahealth Hospital in Stoughton. He was born in Plymouth on Dec. 18, 1942, son of the late Dino and Beverly (Burgess) Ghidoni. He was educated in the Plymouth schools and was a graduate of Plymouth-Carver High School, class of 1961. Glenn was employed for many years for the town of Duxbury, working in the Cemetery Department. A member of the Plymouth Lodge of Elks, Glenn enjoyed music and storytelling. He is survived by his daughter Gaye Lindsay and her husband William of Plymouth, his sons Glenn Ghidoni Jr. of Plymouth and Chad Ghidoni of Plymouth, his sisters Virginia Covell of Plymouth, Norma Roderick of Plymouth and his brother Warren Ghidoni of Plymouth. He is also survived by five grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial service was held on Sept. 11 in the Davis Funeral Home, 373 Court St., North Plymouth. Burial was in Vine Hills Cemetery in Plymouth. Memorial donations in his name may be made to his favorite local charity, Ryansride.net or by mail, to Ryan's Ride Inc., 84 Nathan Lane, Plymouth, MA 02360. An online guestbook is available at cartmelldavis.com.